Trade Credit for Omnichannel Sales

Hokodo's digitised trade credit solution can be integrated into your existing omnichannel sales process to help you offer favourable payment terms to a greater number of your customers.

Here's how it works.

Your existing customers order as normal.

We take care of monitoring their financial health, limit usage and concentrations on an ongoing basis.

We offer larger limits to more of your customers.

We leverage past payments experience and our Lloyd's of London backing to help give you the headroom you need to trade comfortably.

Your customers are empowered to pay as they want.

They choose whether to pay up front or at a later date. The most convenient and relevant payment methods – including direct debit, credit card, bank transfer and more – are offered to your clients.

Payment flexibility is offered as standard.

When needed, we let your clients change their payment schedule to overcome temporary issues.

You choose when to get paid.

You choose whether to get paid upon delivery or completion of the service, on the due date or when the buyer completes payment.

Your customer pays for their purchase.

On the due date, your customer pays their invoice. You keep the money even if your customer doesn't pay.

We take care of risk and collections.

Hokodo's solutions are backed by Lloyd's of London, so you can trade in the knowledge that you're protected from all credit and fraud risk. If a customer defaults on their payment, we'll handle it.
