

Hokodo's trade credit solution helps to bring your customers' checkout experience in line with the rest of your online platform, without exposing you to any of the associated risk.

Here's how it works.

01 Customers visit your website and place an order or make a booking as normal.

They don't need to create an account in order to pay via Hokodo.

Cart	£500.00	▼
Subtotal	£475.00
Coupon Discount	£0.00	ⓘ
VAT	£25.00	ⓘ
Shipping	Free
Total	£500.00

02 Hokodo's APIs run credit and fraud risk checks on your customer.

Our eligibility assessments take less than half a second. The only information we need is the business name and address of your customer or their company registration number.

Company Type

Registered Company

Sole Trader

Company Information

Company Name

Building and street

City Postcode

03 We recommend suitable credit limits and payment terms.

When your customer is ready to confirm their order, they see the payment terms for which they've been approved.

04 The option to pay now is also offered.

If your customer prefers not to choose payment terms, the ability to pay immediately is also offered.

Payment plan

Pay now

Pay in 14 days

Pay in 30 days

Pay in 60 days

Pay in 90 days

05 Your customer chooses how they will settle with Hokodo.

They select their preferred payment method, such as direct debit, credit card or bank transfer.

Payment plan

Pay in 60 days (No interest, no fees)

£0.00 30/12/2022

£500.00 30/02/2023

Continue

06 You choose when to get paid.

Your customer pays us in line with their chosen payment terms. You choose whether to get paid upon delivery or completion of the service, on the due date or when the buyer completes payment.

07 We take care of risk and collections.

Hokodo's solutions are backed by Lloyd's of London, so you can trade in the knowledge that you're protected from all credit and fraud risk. If a customer defaults on their payment, we'll handle it.

PAYMENT REMINDER

Dear Customer,

This is a reminder that your payment for order number #7856X is now overdue. Please click the link below to make your payment.

Continue

The Hokodo Team